

Motherhood Initiative for Research and Community Involvement

PRESENTS

Mothers and the Economy: The Economics of Mothering Conference
October 21-23, 2010

Oakham House, Ryerson University, 63 Gould St., Toronto, Canada

FEATURED KEYNOTE SPEAKERS:

Marilyn Waring, Auckland University of Technology, author of
If Women Counted: A New Feminist Economics -
"The Human Rights and Unpaid Care Interface" will speak
Friday, October 22, 2010: 8:00pm - TICKETS: $25

Martha Albertson Fineman, Emory University, author of The Autonomy Myth: A Theory of Dependency -
"Motherhood and Entitlement will speak
Thursday, October 21: 7:30pm

TICKETS: $35 (*this ticket price includes the reception/book launch preceding the keynote address - beginning at 5:15pm)

Tickets may be purchased online through our website (Paypal option) or by mail with cheque payable to "MIRCI" <http://www.motherhoodinitiative.org>

TICKETS FOR THE 2 KEYNOTE ADDRESSES ARE VERY LIMITED SO WE ASK THAT YOU ORDER TICKETS EARLY IF YOU PLAN TO ATTEND.

The conference also features keynote addresses by Andrea Doucet, Bonnie Fox and Patrizia Albanese

as well as 100+ presenters and 40 panels over 3 exciting days including:

Mothering and Social Services and Policy; Gender and Paid and Unpaid Work;

Counting Motherhood; Mothering and Empowerment: Challenges And Possibilities;

Economics of Mothering; Supporting And Empowering "High Risk" Mothers and much much more!

Day rates, student, and full conference rates are available if you wish to attend the larger conference. Please see our website for the full conference program, attendee registration form, and individual ticket sales for both keynotes.

<http://www.motherhoodinitiative.org>